

Desert Museum Program Faces Slash—Smith

Support Of Fund Still Light

Since it opened the doors on its spacious, beautifully appointed new Tahquitz Drive quarters on Nov. 1, 1953, a total in excess of $3,000 persons — including great hordes of youngsters — have tramped into the Desert Museum here.

But, according to Museum Director Dr. C. E. Smith, that figure is going to be sharply reduced during the forthcoming fiscal year — unless Villagers participate actively in the United Fund campaign.

"UNLESS THE minimum budget for our operations is assured," said Smith, "some amount of our program is going to be drastically reduced."

"It isn't possible that this reduction will not affect the more than 10,000 children who used the Desert Museum's facilities this past season," he said.

IN ADDITION to the field trips and hikes conducted by the Desert Museum — and which are available to youngsters and oldsters — the Village small fry routinely benefit from an encompassing lineup of special programs that include lectures, motion pictures, slide exhibitions, live displays and special events.

"Since these things all cost money," Smith said, "we'll be faced with the reality that we can present only as much as we can finance."

THE DESERT Museum's director thus joined a growing list of executives in Village charity organizations who have made public pleas with the community for support of the United Fund campaign here.

The longtime cultural landmark — it was incorporated in October of 1938 as a non-profit and thus tax-free organization — has been an unusual addition to the ranks of Southland museums.

"This isn't simply a collection of dead bugs and stuffed animals," Dr. Smith explained, "it's a dynamic, living educational force for this community."

A TOTAL of 33,000 persons have used Museum facilities since the institution opened its doors. They have been involved in a wide range of activities that include everything from chamber music to an exhibition of Abraham Lincoln's personal papers.

The Museum stands on land dedicated for such a purpose by Cornelia B. White in 1947. A tiny organization — including such personnel as...

Quake Rattles San Francisco This Morning

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — An earthquake shook San Francisco and the area immediately south of the city at 10:26 a.m. p.m. today.

The University of California seismographic station at Berkeley said the quake measured 3.0 on the Richter scale — "not very strong." It was centered southwest of Daly City to the immediate southwest of San Francisco on the notorious San Andreas fault.

"Dishes and windows rattled and it lasted for about five seconds," one San Bruno housewife reported.

There were no reports of damage.

A housewife in San Francisco described it as a rolling shock similar to the March 2 quake centered in the Gilroy-Watsonville area south of here. However, today's quake was not nearly as sharp as the last one, which measured 5.3 on the Richter magnitude scale.

VETERAN, CHURCH EXEMPTION FILING DEADLINE MAY 25

Deadline for filing application for exemption from property taxes by veterans and churches in Riverside County — and specifically in Palm Springs and the desert Empire — has been set for 5 p.m., May 25, it was announced today.

County Assessor Eric L. Waite said today that the deadline also applies to members of the armed forces still in service.

Applicants may file application here at the Assessor's Office at 400 North Belardo Road from 9-12 a.m., daily until May 25, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., on May 25.

Persons who believe that they are exempt from all or part of their county taxes are urged to file with the county assessor here.

Ministers Hold Parley At Geneva

Warm-Up Meeting Eyes Agenda for Monday Conference

GENEVA, UPI — The Big Four foreign ministers began assembling in Geneva today for Monday's Berlin crisis talks and Russia's Andrei Gromyko started speeding up pressure for an early summit meeting.

Gromyko was the first to arrive. The Soviet Foreign Minister expressed hope "that the foreign ministers conference will arrange an early convocation of the heads of government."

The statement supported claims by Communist sources that the Russians will forego wrangling over procedural matters at the beginning of the foreign ministers meeting in order to speed the way to the summit conference that both East and West now regard as inevitable.

U. S. SECRETARY OF State Christian Herter stopped over in Bonn, West Germany, on his way to Geneva, for talks with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. He arrives here late this afternoon.

The West German Government disclosed it had replied to Russia's April 24 warning against the arming of West German forces with atomic weapons.

THE REPLY was believed to have rejected the Soviet complaint in much the same forthright terms as the United States' rejection Friday of a similar warning against supplying nuclear weapons to its NATO allies.

Responsible Communist sources predicted today that Gromyko would try to settle outside the conference of ministers such questions as the seating of the East German Communists, Poland and Czechoslovakia so as to avoid days of argument.

LOS ANGELES, UPI — Phillip A. Adkins, deputy public administrator of Los Angeles County, was in county jail today on grand theft charges involving misapplication of funds from the estates of deceased persons with no relatives.

JANE SULLIVAN TABBED ELK'S 'MOTHER OF YEAR'

By GEORGE LAINE

At approximately 8 p.m., tomorrow, a statuesque woman with only a slight hint of grey in her hair will step to the stage at Elk's Hall and receive the 1959 "Mother of the Year" award from the Village Elk's Lodge.

She is Mrs. Jane Sullivan and her qualifications for the title are obvious: she has seven children.

THE KIDS AND EVEN husband Joe Sullivan, owner-manager of Sullivan's Market on South Palm Canyon Drive, are excited about the honor but Jane, who is appreciative, figures that motherhood is something you don't talk about.

"You've got to work at it," she said.

That, in brief, is the key to the Sullivan's success as a family and Jane's success as a mother.

"We all work together," she said.

WED 25 YEARS on June 13, the Sullivan offspring include Bonny, 24; Patrick, 22; Diana, 19; Rose-

TEENAGER BAPTIZES DYING FRIEND AFTER ATTACK BY SHARK

SAN FRANCISCO, UPI — "Oh my God I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee."

So whispered 15-year-old Albert Kogler during a hurried, bedside baptism, two hours before he died from wounds made by a man-eating shark.

Baptizing young Kogler was the 18-year-old girl who pulled him from the turbulent surf already turned red from his blood.

The girl, Shirley O'Neill, had plunged back into the water Thursday disregarding Kogler's screaming warnings of danger.

Already a heroine for her courage in hauling the fatally mauled Kogler to shore, it was revealed today that Shirley baptized him and in effect, said the last rites over his body from which life obviously was fast ebbing.

Kogler died a short time later after emergency surgery failed to stem the damage resulting from shock and loss of flesh and blood.

Meanwhile, Mayor George Christopher disclosed he planned to seek a Carnegie Medal of Heroism for Shirley for her dangerous and heartbreaking attempt to save the life of her friend.

Stations Girding For 'Gas War' Prices Slashed

A potential gas war looms in Palm Springs this weekend when at least four local service stations have lowered their gasoline prices by as much as 8 cents a gallon.

Local service station operators report that the price war here was almost inevitable after the local city council publicly complained about the high prices.

A group of service station operators, who believed that the "war" would "cost independent operators a lot of money," are attempting to rally forces to stop the war, but it was indicated that it might be too late.

One operator said that local service stations "have been hurting" and pointed out that the big reason was that local people are "going out of town to buy gasoline."

Heart Attack Killed Quarles

WASHINGTON, UPI — A heart attack was blamed today for the death Friday of Donald A. Quarles, Deputy Secretary of Defense.

200 Feared Dead in Nile Boat Mishap

Vessel Few Feet From Safety When Tragedy Occurred

CAIRO, UPI — A Nile River excursion boat that had sprung a leak capsized a few feet from safety when 350 panic-stricken passengers swarmed to the side nearest the shore, officials said today.

More than 200 persons, most of them women and children, were feared dead.

PUBLIC WORKS Minister Ahmed Alsharabassi blamed the sinking on the owners of the 30-year-old, triple-decked excursion boat Dandarah, who he said had crammed about 350 persons into a craft with a rated capacity of 60.

Alsharabassi said the steamer's owners sold about 250 tickets, and allowed up to 100 children under 12 years of age to board the boat without paying.

THE EXACT DEATH toll may never be known. Authorities said 112 persons were known saved, leaving 238 missing. Some of these were thought to have rushed home from the scene of tragedy at the village of Qalyug, 10 miles north of Cairo.

Skin divers recovered 11 bodies Friday night before operations were suspended because of darkness. Eighty-six persons were known to be safe and authorities reported 26 other persons undergoing hospital treatment.

FIFTY OF THOSE saved were taken off by launch when the vessel sprang the leak in midstream. Crewmen rushed the vessel to the bank and threw ropes ashore in hopes of tying it up.

But panic struck and the passengers rushed to the side near the shore. The ship turned over so quickly few could have known what happened. It sank at once. Only the mast and U.A.R. flag showed above the water.

County Board To Have Six Desert Items

Six items of interest to desert area residents were today posted for the Monday meeting agenda of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors.

Desert area items listed on the supervisory agenda for the Riverside meeting include:

Hearing at 10 a.m. on annexation of certain territory to the Desert Hot Springs Fire Protection District; Recommendation to extend road agreements on Eldorado Palms; tax bond on Indio Terrace Unit 2.

Sheriff's recommendation not to adopt an ordinance for bicycle registration; request of the fair board to approve plans for audience area and new exhibit building at the county fairgrounds; reports on investigation of a cattle feeding yard near Coachella.

Village Deanery Holds Last Meet

The Palm Springs Deanery, on Tuesday, will hold its final meeting before the summer holidays, at Twenty-nine Palms, it was reported today.

Luncheon will be held at the Blessed Sacrament school, followed by entertainment featuring Grace Gogerty McCann and her Irish harp. There will also be an election of officers for the coming two-year term.

Illinois Police Jail Local Marine in Village Car Theft

Palm Springs police have been notified by the Illinois State Police that they have in custody at the Effingham County jail a 21-year-old Twenty-nine Palms Marine who reportedly confessed to a Palm Springs car theft.

In custody at Effingham County jail is Clyde Douglas Augustus, arrested for stealing a car on March 5 from in front of the Howard Manor.

The car, a Chevrolet Impala, belonged to Talbert A. Kirkman of Los Angeles, owner of the Talbert Construction Company.

Local authorities will take action on the disposition of both Augustus and the car.

Merchant Fete Due on Tuesday

The Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual installation of officers at a meeting at the Chi Chi on Tuesday.

Although the event will be a social affair, business of the evening will be a short installation of officers and recognition will be given to outgoing members.

5 Public Hearings

County Planners to Have 19 Desert Area Matters

Five public hearings head a list of 19 desert area items listed on the Tuesday meeting agenda for the Riverside County Planning Commission.

Hearings on desert matters scheduled for the commission meeting in Riverside are:

Mary Hayes for a trailer park in APPLICATION BY Walter and a W-2 zone between Portola and W. Pasquel Avenues, one half mile north of Avenue 44.

Otto F. Opperman's application for a quarry in Blind Canyon about two miles north of Pierson Boulevard, Desert Hot Springs. Request for a change of zone, from R-3 to C-1, by Paul P. Gelles for property south of Daves Street, east of Lavender lane and about 200 feet west of Date Palm Drive, Cathedral City area.

NON-CONFORMING use application of the Southern California District of the Lutheran Church for a church and school on the northeast corner of Miles Avenue and Clinton in an I-R-1 zone. Application by Leo Gogerty for a trailer park in the Desert Crest area of Desert Hot Springs, on the east side of Bennet Road, 900 feet south of Dillon Road.

OTHER ITEMS scheduled for commission consideration: Request from United Outdoor Advertising Co. to establish a 10-foot-by-42 foot Salton City sign board on the southwest side of Highway 99, 100 feet southeast of its Burr Street intersection.

Variance request of Peter D. Laue for building eave encroachment into yard area from three feet to five feet in an R-3 zone of Desert Hot Springs.

Variance case on application of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church application for a reduction of front yard in an R-3 zone, at 66-640 Pierson Boulevard, Desert Hot Springs.

Anti-Biotics Administered By Medics

Stricken Dulles Using Wheelchair Almost Completely

WASHINGTON, UPI — Ailing former Secretary of State John Foster Dulles now has pneumonia and his condition was described as "somewhat weaker," by doctors at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

The State Department in disclosing the pneumonia attack, said that Dulles responded satisfactorily to his initial injection of antibiotics.

DULLES HAS BEEN receiving analgesics for relief of almost constant pain from his cancer attacks.

It was disclosed earlier this week that Dulles now has to get around in a wheelchair. The State Department said he is able to walk but finds it more convenient to use the wheelchair.

Today's announcement said: "Former Secretary Dulles has contracted a mild case of pneumonia. His initial response to antibiotics has been satisfactory and his temperature is normal. He is, however, somewhat weaker."

THE PNEUMONIA attack followed one month after a medical report which said X-rays indicated Dulles had a malignant tumor in the lower part of his neck.

Radiation treatments that were started on April 14 were continued only four days when doctors said they were not helping the former secretary.

DULLES ON FEB. 13 underwent a hernia operation which disclosed that he was suffering from a recurrence of abdominal cancer for which he originally underwent surgery in November, 1956.

He received massive radiation treatments and injections of radio-active gold.

serving Villagers as Madeline Cook, Tom Slaven, H. Earl Hoover, Christina Lillian, William Colburn and others — worked tenaciously to make sure that the Desert Museum had quarters even during its formative years.

TWO HIKES, one on Wednesday, the other on Saturday, are included in the Museum's weeklong operating schedule. Special evening programs are held each Tuesday, Friday and Saturday and the Museum maintains an open-door policy with visitors invited from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 1-4 p.m. on Sundays.

"I'm not certain where we'll make our cuts," Dr. Smith sighed. "But unless the United Fund can assure us of our budget minimum, there most assuredly will be cuts made."

The United Fund is currently only slightly past the halfway mark in its campaign to raise almost $100,000 for operation of Village charitable organizations. The possibility of independent campaigns by some of the Fund organizations has been noted by both the organizations and by Fund officials.

CHURCHILL NOW KENYA MEMBER

Sir Winston Churchill has accepted an honorary membership in the Mt. Kenya Safari Club of Kenya, East Africa, an organization created by Villagers Ray Ryan and William Holden.

The former British prime minister, who left the U. S. yesterday for his native England after a visit with President Eisenhower, was presented with a scroll designating him as an honorary member by former Secret Service agent Mike Reilly, now a Ryan associate.

Dedicated to the conservation of wild life in the huge game preserves of East Africa, the scroll cites Churchill's "years of devotion to worthy causes." Reilly, who had taken personal charge of security at the historic Yalta conference attended by Churchill, the late President Roosevelt and the late Joseph Stalin, was warmly received by Churchill who asked the Ryan associate to convey his gratitude to Ryan and Holden.

Subdivision Appeal Hearing Set for May 11

A hearing has been set by the Board of Supervisors Monday for May 11 at 10 a.m., on an appeal by John Moore Robinson, as secretary for a group of corporations, on rejection by the county planning commission of a proposed subdivision, Jefferson Street Estates.

The planning commission denial was based on location of the proposed subdivision in the path of Thousand Palms Canyon storm-water flows.

Milkie to Attend Lens Workshop

Palm Springs optometrist Dr. George Milkie, member of the Orange Belt Optometric Society, will attend the first annual Contact Lens Workshop of the California Optometric Association May 10 and 11 at the Hacienda in Fresno.

The council-manager plan of city government was first tried by Dayton, Ohio, in 1914. By 1921, it had been adopted in 162 cities. Today nearly 1,200 local governments use the system.

GILBERT UNVEILS NEW CHI CHI SHOW

One of the half-dozen genuinely funny comics in show business hopped, skipped and jumped into the Chi Chi Starlite Room last night and some of the first night audience are probably still laughing.

Gilbert—co-billed with hometown singer Ginny Simms, dancer Jimmy Ray and the Bill Alexander Orchestra—does a lot of the old routines that have endeared him to show crowds everywhere and has even managed to get some brand-new and slightly revised materials into this current show.

THERE ARE THE things like "Funny Valentine" and "My Wife Is Gone" and a revitalized "Married I Can Always Get" but the breaker-upper for this show is a brand-new workout for "When the Saints Go Marching In."

In it, Gilbert conducts a stereo demonstration in which he sends the various members of the Alexander band to different locations around the club. Alexander became a really "far out" drummer when he was dispatched halfway to Cabazon by Gilbert. If you've never had a bass player — with bass-sitting in your lap, you just haven't seen show biz, ded.

THE GILBERT WIT has never been better. Sample item: "I got a good booker. He sends me to Florida in the summer, Alaska in the winter, Bakersfield for the earthquake season and Palm Springs in May."

"I love to work the West Coast. You get paid three hours earlier."

"After the show we're going to get on the bus and go to Romanoff's On the Rocks."

GINNY'S PORTION of the show consists of a nostalgic romp back through the tunes that have been loved through the recent years. Included were "Zippity Doo Dah," "Over the Rainbow," "I've Got You Under My Skin," "Thanks for the Memories," "Who Wouldn't Love You"—one of the duets the pretty Villager used to sing with Harry Babbit in the Kay Kyser band—and "In the Still of the Night."

There is still the velvety softness of voice that characterized Ginny when she was with the Kyser band. If anything, there has been a mellowing of tone, of voice quality that enhance the sound.

DANCER JIMMY RAY, off-seen on TV recently, launches the current show with a dance routine that is at once distinctive and unusual.

Bill Alexander and the biggest, little band in the world backstop the works with gusto and with then switch to dance tempos for the Starlite Room crowds which, for this time of year, are unusually large. It must mean that the town is getting bigger—or hipper—G.L.

Actions Are Filed

The Board of Supervisors received and routinely filed three desert area planning commission reports as follows:

Denial of a variance to the Palm Springs Builders Supply Co., Ltd. to allow a permit to operate a ready-mix concrete batch plant on property located approximately 1,000 feet south of Ramon Road and three-fourths of a mile east of Date Palm Drive, east of Palm Springs. The site is in the W-2 (watershed, conservation and recreation) zone. Approval of an application by Henry D. Carter of Beaumont on behalf of himself, Clyde Evans, Arson Cholakian and Gerald V. Anderson, for a non-conforming use permit to divide a parcel of land at the northeast corner of Starlight Lane and 41st Avenue in the Bermuda Dunes area.

Approval of an application by Palmaras Estates Co. of Palm Desert for a public use permit to establish a real estate tract office on the northwest corner of the Rancho Palmaras Drive and Palm Shadow Drive intersection in the Indian Wells area in an R-1-30, 9,000 zone (single residential with 80-foot frontage lot having a minimum of 9,000 square feet).

700 Students To Give Vocal Festival May 15

A total of approximately 700 music-minded students from throughout Southern California will converge on Palm Springs High School May 15 for the annual Southern California Vocal Association Festival, it was announced today.

Vocal Music Director Alex Hammond noted that it marked the first time the Village has played host to the annual event.

THE DAY-LONG festival will culminate with a Festival Concert at 7:30 p.m., in the Palm Springs High School Auditorium. Among the schools to be represented in the Festival and in the evening presentation, Hammond said, are eight different schools, each recognized as outstanding in the field of vocal music.

ONE HIGHLIGHT of the evening performance will be a mass effort by all of the anticipated 700 youngsters under the baton of Dr. Joseph Landon, music supervisor for San Bernardino City Schools and president of the California Music Educators Association. Admission to the festival is free, Hammond emphasized.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. (UPI) — State police said the boldest phony check scheme known to them came to an end when two men were arrested after signing worthless checks. "Carlyle Lawson," the name of the officer in charge of the case.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I've been friends with a man for 18 years. He is a widower 71 years old and lives with his widowed sister who has kept house for him all these years. She is 79. I am 62 and a widow. He is a man of means but very set in his ways. He doesn't like "changes" and still has his original furniture, pictures hanging from the mouldings on wires, and lamps with beads and fringes. His sister asks me why I don't marry him and "take him off her hands." I enjoy his company in small doses but don't think I could take a steady diet of this man. My friends think I am out of my mind for passing up this opportunity. Am I?

DEAR INDEPENDENT: Unless you are in the market for a valuable antique, pass him up. He sounds like he'd make a better "friend" than a husband.

DEAR ABBY: I have heard that hypnosis can help people do things they are capable of doing but could never do before. I would like to improve my typing speed. Most jobs require at least 40 words per minute and I can't seem to build my speed up that high. Could you recommend a psychiatrist who can hypnotize me for this purpose alone?

MISS D.: I do not recommend specific doctors. I suggest that you try to build up your typing speed through practice.

Hypnosis is nothing to fool around with.

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago when I was in Seventh Grade I was very unpopular. No boy would even look at me. Except one. He had failed a year, smoked, drank and was just horrible. But I didn't care. He was a boy and that was all that mattered. I thought. He all that mattered, I thought. He moved away and everyone forgot about him and I started going around with nicer kids. I came a long way and this year was elected Vice-President of the Freshman class. Now this terrible boy has moved back. He is worse than ever. He is trying to pick up where he left off. I hate to snub him but I don't want him hanging around me. He tries to put his hands on me in the halls and calls me "Doll" and "Baby" and I could die. How can I keep him away from me before he ruins my reputation?

ALMOST RUINED DEAR ALMOST: Your reputation is something that you — and only you — can ruin. Tell him that you are not interested in him beyond a "hello" and "goodbye." If you behave like a lady, exchanging casual greetings with

Answer Must Be Found To Meeting Local Quotas

Americans are the most generous people on earth. They give to almost any cause without question, from little tot who knocks at your door and begs a quarter for the school carnival to the patriotic appeal of the Freedom Foundation. Hardly a day goes by that someone isn't asking for the support of some project depending on voluntary support.

The people of Palm Springs are just as generous as those of any other community—sometimes we think more so. Why is it, then, that the United Appeal has fallen far short of its goal? Why is it that the member agencies, which almost all of us accept as vital to the welfare of Palm Springs, may be seriously handicapped? Why has the United Fund failed when other fund-raising efforts have succeeded these past several months?

The answer isn't easy—but it should be apparent to everyone that some solution must be found before another "season" of health, charity and what-have-you appeals comes around.

When originated many years ago the Community Chest idea was generally accepted as the intelligent way to raise money for the local welfare agencies by reducing the number of drives and the cost of many different campaigns. Then, too, the budgets of each agency were reviewed by a committee and the amount asked kept in line with local needs. But there were still so many other appeals that the effectiveness of the Chest idea was endangered. Hence the creation of the United Appeal which included many of the national health agencies.

United Fund officials are now confronted with the refusal of at least three of the important nation-wide health agencies to participate in the one appeal. Not only that; the number of fund-raising projects here in Palm Springs seems to be increasing almost every year—some charitable, some not.

The problem which we face in Palm Springs has become nation-wide. It has set a lot of people to thinking—of wondering if the millions upon millions which we are giving is being spent according to needs and how much is going into the costs of raising the money. Writing for The Washington Post-Times Herald, Eve Edstun has disclosed that the amount raised every year by some of the nation-wide health agency appeals is out of all proportion to the number of victims. The amount contributed to fight polio, for example, was six times that raised for the No. 1 killer, heart disease it was double that contributed to fight cancer. Yet even before the discovery of a polio vaccine the deaths from polio were trivial compared to heart and cancer fatalities.

It should be clear that only the giver can lead us out of our difficulties. People must be awakened to the necessity of mixing some intelligence with their generosity. Residents of Palm Springs should realize that their local youth and welfare agencies depend ENTIRELY on local contributions. These agencies simply must come first. It would be better to go back to a campaign for these agencies alone than to let them suffer by including other causes. This should not be necessary, however. Much thought will have to be given the subject in the next few months.

Word has gone out across the nation that Palm Springs is enjoying an era of rapid growth and prosperity. Let's never let the word get out again that we failed to provide for the needs of our youth and welfare agencies. Let's give more thought to our giving!

Georgia Marches On

ATLANTA, Georgia — "Markets, manpower and material," the speaker said, were the ingredients of industrial success. He was speaking at the groundbreaking ceremonies of the Southeastern Merchandise Mart, a $20 million free enterprise investment in the aforesaid formula.

"If we're going to manufacture in the South, we're going to sell in the South," another speaker asserted. The people from the farms and forests, the workers in the increasing Southern factories, the salesmen who go forth each week from scores of small Southern towns, all had a stake in this big, important attempt at what should be called regional self-sufficiency.

ALL OVER the USA people are suffering from lack of self-sufficiency drive which is illustrated here in Atlanta. The pockets of unemployment which make up most of the workless misery would disappear if the inhabitants of those places could learn from Georgia.

The Atlanta plan is to challenge such cities as Dallas, which is the marketing center of the booming Southwest, San Francisco which does the dealing in the Pacific Northwest, Chicago and New York City which are other places where the big buyers go to bid for the manufactured household goods — apparel, appliances, toys and the like.

GOVERNOR ERNEST Vandiver, the handsome husband of Georgia Senator Dick Russell's niece, told the gathering which included a press party from Washington, as well as trade officials from Great Britain and Spain, that, "We are getting along well in Georgia (where) progress is our business."

The Governor's optimism seemed in admirable contrast to much of the blubbery self-pity which States' spokesmen bring to Washington. The Southeastern Merchandise Mart, all built with venture capital, is the needed substitute for such defeatist monstrosities as the Area Redevelopment bill, which passed the Senate with nearly half a billion dollars of Federal funds potentially earmarked for distribution.

GOV. VANDIVER is laboring under a load of misfortunes left behind by his predecessor. The new man has been trying since January to bring business practices into State government, and has been conspicuously happy in raising the Trust Company of Georgia to get one of the vice presidents, William Bowdoin, Jr., to be the State's chief purchasing agent.

Mr. Bowdoin told this reporter that for the first time in Georgia history, vendors of goods bought with public money are required to give their bank references and to have their partnerships and corporations examined for probity and good community standing.

RESULTS SINCE January have been astonishing. The State has made a 50 per cent saving on cloth purchased for use at the penitentiary, lowered the price of trousers from $6.95 to $5.05 for the Fish and Wild Life Commission's personnel, saved three cents a gallon on bulk purchases of fuel, and in similar ratios lowered the cost of State-purchased asphalt, crosstie, paint and automobile tires.

These facts are given in some detail because they relate to the cost of government in all the States which are seeking new revenue. It seems likely that any Governor with the will to do so could find businessmen able to make savings that would cause States' revenue to go further and States' independence to last much longer.

MR. BOWDOIN, who had another brief span of service under Governor Herman Talmadge, seems to be stepping warily around the ideological booby traps which many businessmen have brought to Washington, notably in the Eisenhower Administrations.

Former Defense Secretary Charles Wilson has the misfortune to be the Number One example of how a tycoon can do quite badly as a bureaucrat. Wilson, who came from the automobile industry which became rich without advancing much in 50 years, had a blind spot for new ideas that related to space flight and trips to the moon.

BUT HE WAS not alone. Plenty of others, in Congress and in the executive departments, have thought they were doing fine with schemes to store up foods, fabrics, metals, water, fuels, military paper work and highways. But Mr. Bowdoin gave his interviewer the impression of having already learned that the chief duty of a government officer is, conversely and negatively, to save as much money as he can. Government is not the investment business, and is not conducted for the purpose of storing up inventories. The public has a friend in the bureaucrat who will reverse, even on a modest scale, the Harry Hopkins law of spend-to-elect.

'Yeah—Yeah—Just Hang On'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Tomorrow's the day
That's set aside
For the gal who
Was your daddy's bride.

Corny? Sure, but tonight and tomorrow there'll be plenty of lachrymose tenors who haven't thought of mother since the second Sunday of May, 1958, who'll be paying lip service to her.

So you don't need anything here. BUT, ALWAYS eager to do research work, I want to tell you that a Miss Anne M. Jarvis—maybe that should be Mrs.—started it all 52 years ago.

She sent a memorial gift of 500 white carnations to her church in Philadelphia in honor of her mother in 1907.

The idea caught on and President Woodrow Wilson, a few years later, officially proclaimed the second Sunday in May each year as "Mother's Day."

TELEGRAPH WIRES and cables will be busy this afternoon as bouquet, corsages and floral arrangements are sent via wire by dutiful sons and daughters to mothers in the United States, Canada, New Zealand, Belgium, the Netherlands, West Germany and Denmark.

All of these countries observe the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day.

ONE OF the greatest tributes to Mothers I have ever read was by a minister who said simply:

"My mother practices what I preach."

I just don't know when Children's Day is but for mothers, it is every day.

TOMORROW MARKS another big day in history.

It was on May 10, 1869 that the golden spike was driven at Promontory Point, Utah, and transcontinental railroad service became a reality.

That was only 90 years ago. Did you ever stop to think how much slower the development of the west would have been had it not been for the railroads?

Which reminds me, it's almost time to start negotiations with Sandy Cooper of the FSP about that annual train ride.

PALM SPRINGS made the headlines on sports pages across the nation this week. The ABC-TV All Star Golf series which started its 1959 tourneys here this week were publicized from coast to coast.

And next November, when the Ryder Cup matches are played at Eldorado, the desert area will gain much more favorable publicity.

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED, the national magazine devoted to sports, this month came out with a five-page spread on the golf courses in the Palm Springs area.

There were four full pages in color of local golf courses in beautiful settings and a page article on "Desert Golf Explosion."

Palm Springs is the Winter Golf Capital of the World, the magazine asserts.

Heck, we knew that a long time ago. Then there is the youth, happy because the boss had offered him an interest in the business.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The wagons of the Forty-niners came down from Idaho, following the thin threads of creeks in Northern Nevada. Then they followed the Humboldt river, much the same as Highway 40 does today.

"The valley lies east and west generally," great-grandfather observed when he passed here in 1850. "The channel of the river is as crooked as a capital 'S'. In fact, it is so crooked that it cannot be still, for it was running every time I saw it until it got to the lake. Then it spread itself over the ground and lay perfect still, unless the wind was blowing. Then it would roll up in great waves and run out for miles over the white plains."

"ANTELOPES were numerous," he wrote. "Ogle and Montgomery went hunting and rode a horse and mule. Montgomery killed three fat antelopes and they brought them to camp and we feasted on fresh meat and got 'fat.'"

"But not in the same way a long, lean, bony man of Mattoon did," grandpa wrote slyly, "for this man sent $5 to Dr. Lord of Chicago for a recipe telling how to get fat. And the doctor wrote him: 'Go to the nearest butcher shop and buy it.'"

SUCH IDEAS tickled our great-grandfather. He lived then in Charleston, Ill., county seat and once host to a great Lincoln-Douglas debate.

The lively, upstart town of Mattoon lay on the railroad line, ten miles away.

The idea of the lean Mattoon man being swindled by a Chicago slicker pleased him. And he repeated this "fat" story several times in his journal.

IN LATER years, grandpa was a white-bearded gentleman on a shady front porch of an Illinois farmhouse. He offered the thanks before dinner — unless one of our preacher uncles was around; then the professional took precedence.

"I NEVER fully understood Samson's lion and honey story until I saw the skeleton and hide of an ox that had sunk into the earth when it was soft in '49 and could not get out and so starved to death," he wrote.

The entire skeleton was partly buried in the ground. The hide with the hair on was still along the back, making a perfect waterproof roof."

THERE WERE no bees in there. But grandpa decided: "Bees could have deposited honey under the hide roof. As I suppose they did in the lion that Samson rent asunder with his hands. 'Out of the eater came forth meat and out of the strong came his sweetness.'"

"But I would rather have my honey in pound sections," said grandpa.

AT THE ALKALI sink where the Humboldt spreads across the desert, the wagons crossed the Carson river.

"Now comes the 'lug of war,'" said grandfather. "The 40-mile desert between Humboldt lake and Carson river, which is a literal desert sure enough, and it took us two days to cross it."

"Part of this desert is level as a floor, and nothing grows on it, for it is a white salt and alkali desert. On this desert many of the gold seekers threw away carpenter and blacksmith tools, trunks and anything they could spare."

"I COUNTED 1120 dead cattle, 330 dead horses, 67 dead mules, two dead jacks and one dead jenny — all inside 40 miles. About all the weak stock gave out and died here."

"Water was hauled back on this sand desert from Carson river and sold for $1 a gallon. But accidentally a man discovered a sink hole half a mile south of the main road. And in it, half-way down the hill, on the north side, a spring of good, pure water gushed out and there was a drop on water and the trust busted."

GRANDPA WORKED up his journal from a diary in later years. About the time everybody was after the steel trust and meat trust and so on. Recalling how the desert water trust was busted by Providence gave him great satisfaction. Almost as much as the Mattoon man who bought the recipe on how to get fat. And the doctor told him: "Go to the butcher shop and buy it."

It was a pleasure to think about such things.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"My latest symptoms have him baffled! . . . He says it's difficult to diagnose something for someone who's had everything! . . ."

EARL WILSON:

Popcorn, Beer and Pop

NEW YORK — A girl at a cocktail party had been saying "Paul Newman is the prettiest man who has come along in a generation."

Prettiest to women; to men one of the most interesting. He was sitting in a back booth at Downey's — which he likes to call "the rich man's Nedicks" — in his shirt sleeves because he had not worn a jacket for his dinner date with me. A coarsely customer is rare nowadays, but then, Newman is a rare customer.

"I'm a little late," I said. "I had thought our date was at Sardi's."

Paul grinned handsomely across the top of a bottle of German beer. "The way I'm dressed, Sardi's usually won't let me in." He explained it. "I guess it harkens back to the days of sweat shirt actors in blue jeans. But when I get up, I got 50 things to do. I chase around town—I got a scooter. What'm I gonna do? Run back to the house in the Village to change clothes to have dinner."

"Could make you gentlemen a special dessert?" asked the waitress, to whom Paul was obviously a favorite. With or without jacket.

"Has it got alcohol in it?" Paul asked. She said it had.

"Then bring me rice pudding," he commanded. "I'll drink with anybody after 11 o'clock or on a Sunday if they want to come with me. But not when I'm working."

Newman always takes a little nap in his dressing room before going on in the Tennessee Williams play, "Sweet Bird of Youth."

He was hoping to get to that nap now.

"It's an absolute necessity," the new father said. (He and Joanne Woodward had just brought home their baby girl.) "I wanted to come back to Broadway and I'm glad I did," Newman went on. "But it's a lot of work, boy. I forgot."

"You know I made a great discovery when Joanne was in the hospital. I used to be a good ball player. I played ball one day and watched three flies go over my head. I couldn't hit. I had no depth perception. I used to be a good pool player, too. It was the same with pool. No good any more."

"It suddenly came to me with immense force. 'Newman, you're 34 years old! Heightened by the fact the hair line has receded!'"

Being nominated for an Oscar, being the husband of an Oscar winner of the year before, being a new father, all have brought new attention to Paul Newman and cut down sharply on one of his hobbies — smuggling cans of beer into movie houses so he can guzzle while eating popcorn.

He got hooked on popcorn while growing up in Cleveland.

"Of course, I still do it in New York," He glared. "Three or four nights a week I cook up a batch of popcorn and open a couple of beers and read a book. That's what I call gracious living."

"My most embarrassing experience was smuggling a greasy bag of popcorn inside my tuxedo into a movie."

"In the days before I unfortunately got famous, I used to drop about six cans of beer into my wife's bag. You know how it goes 'SQUUSH!' when you open it? Well, you have to wait till the audience laughs at the picture, that's all."

Beneath the shirt-sleeved, jacketless exterior, though, Newman is deeply analytical. "My God, five years ago if anybody'd said I'd been working with Ella Kazan and Tennessee Williams and Gertrude Page—"

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Tvers Go Into Movie Business

HOLLYWOOD—Tearing a leaf from Desilu, Playhouse 90 and CBS-TV are going into the business of making pictures for theaters. As though they haven't done enough harm to Hollywood's movie studios with those infernal watching machines in the living rooms, the TV boys will release their June 18 show, "As Dark as the Night," in movie theaters after it is telecast.

The filmed 90 stars Michael Wilding and Laraine Day. Desilu started it by splicing together its two-part Al Capone shows, "The Untouchables," for theaters. The question is: Who's gonna pay to see them in a theater after they have seen them cuffed from the old easy-chair?

GLORIA SWANSON is tearing a leaf too, from Arlene Dahl. Silent-screen star is filming the first of a daytime series angled at female viewers, same as the Dahl doll. Title: Female of the Species.

Milton Berle, who has 12 years to go on his 20-year NBC contract, got an okay from that network to do one on CBS — a Desilu-Westinghouse comedy romp with Lucy Ball and Desi Arnaz. First time it's ever happened. You say Berle is interviewed on CBS Person-to-Person? But that was deemed not an "entertainment but a 'special news event,'" as specified by the fine print in Uncle Milton's contract.

SIR JOHN Gielgud was so brilliant in duPont's Show of the Month, "The Browning Version," he's been ballpointed to take over Sir Cedric Hardwicke's role in the London company of Broadway's brilliant "Majority of One," as the Japanese who has a romance with Gertrude Berg.

Songwriter Sheb ("Purple People Eater") Wooley is writing a Rawhide script titled "Incident of the Purple People Eater."

There aren't enough celebrities in New York these days (they're all here in Hollywood making TV deals!) so disk jockey Martin Block had to fly out here to tape-record two months of interviews for his Manhattan deejay show.

HOLLYWOOD'S actors' guilds and unions are raising holy hob with the networks because the names of players appearing on various shows are flashed on the beam too fast at the end of the shows—and sometimes, if the commercials go overboard, not at all. Since a screen credit is an actor's meat and potatoes they love shows like Jack Webb's Dragnet, The D. A.'s Man and Pete Kelly's Blues, on which the closing credits crawl lazily along, giving everyone a chance to read them.

Jack, after all, in addition to being a producer-director, is also an actor and understands how important the credits are. But what the unions can't understand is why the credits on The Loretta Young Show, for one, flash across like a knuckleball by White Sox southpaw Billy Pierce! Especially since Loretta herself is an actress.

RAYMOND BURR will shoot only 28 Perry Masons next season instead of the usual 39. His producers don't want the Pride of the Private-Eyes spending another summer in the hospital.

Remember "way back when all the critics were lambasting Mario Lanza because he pre-recorded the operatic arias advertised as "live singing" on his TV shows? Jane Powell pre-recorded two her CBSongs for last Sunday's (April 26) "Meet Me in St. Louis" — "The Trolley Song" and "Skip to My Lou" — mouthing them on the telebeam, and nobody mouthed a word of protest.

BIG SHAKEUP is looming for The Bob Cummings Show in the new season. Looks like Ann B. Davis, Rosemary De Camp and the rest of his regulars will be out, with new blood coming in. That's showbiz for you — like the title of Victor Moore's old-time vaudeville routine, "Change Your Act or Back to the Woods."

Mickey Rooney's son Teddy is "working" in the film you'll see on Coca Cola's May 19 spec, "America Pauses" (and guess what America pauses for) — by taking free rides at Pacific Ocean Park, Hollywood's version of Coney Island. And the moppet is getting PAID for it!

POLLY BERGEN, producer, Pretty Polly has purchased from RKO the TV rights to its 1944 movie, "The Enchanted Cottage," in which Dorothy McGuire and Bob Young played the ugly ducklings transferred by their love for each other into Romeo & Juliet-like lovers. She has also signed Leonard Spigelglass to cut it down for her into a 90-minute spec. Warner buy a ready-made package, Playhouse 90?

Horace MacMahon's new boss used to be his office boy. Herbert E. Leonard ran errands for Horace 10 years ago when the actor was under contract at Columbia Pictures. Now Horace is producing MacMahon's teleseries, The Naked City. And that's the way the boss-boy bounces.

DAVID SUSSKIND, still blasting away at Hollywood actors, told a San Francisco columnist most Tinseltown thespians are "just freaks — products of publicity campaigns who couldn't act their way out of a phone booth — they have to shoot 20 takes before they get one right!" David has just signed to make some movies for Columbia. Come on in, David, and let's see you make burns out of George Stevens, Vincente Minnelli, Stanley Kramer and Fred Zinneman — oh BROTHER, have YOU got a comeuppance coming!

If you can stand it, downtown Jackie Gleason is decrying the veddy social Dina Merrill, daughter of leading Washington, D.C. hostess Mrs. Merriweather Post, for his leading lady in his new hour-long CBS-TVentures next fall.

Oldtime Walter (The Real McCoy) Brennan puts it this way: "I can see where a lot of our new stars are going in for oil painting as a means of 'expressing themselves' between pictures. I can remember when they got it out of their systems by painting the town red!"

NEW BOOKS

Distaff Pair Detail Voyage in 'By George'

By George, by Betty J. Miller. Pageant Press. 232 Pages. $3.50.

It doesn't seem possible that two non-seafaring young women like the two described in this book — Betty Miller and Vi March — could have even attempted, much less completed the trip described in this book. It must have been a circus.

NEITHER OF the two had been to sea previously, yet they sailed their vessel, a 40-foot cruiser called the George, from Long Island nearly to West Palm Beach without serious difficulty. I say without serious difficulty because there were some minor alterations along the way.

Some of those alterations involved inability of either of the two young ladies to halt or even impede the progress of their boat. This factor became so vital that they eventually were called upon to confess that they didn't know how to start such an operation.

SOME OF THEIR cruise—like the trip across Albemarle Bay—is riotous, the rest simply hilarious. All of it is good fun, pleasant reading and an alarming insight into the intestinal fortitude of American womanhood.

There is one very integral facet of this thing that keeps gnawing away at your reviewer. I wish I'd been along on this insane cruise.—George Laine,

100 to Attend Mentalphysics Students Meet

YUCCA VALLEY — More than 100 delegates from the United States and Canada are expected to attend the 45th Mentalphysics Students Convention scheduled to get under way at the City of Mentalphysics here Sunday.

Dr. Edwin J. Dingle, founder of the Science of Mentalphysics, will open the two-week convocation Sunday with a talk on "The Dilemma of Tibet" at the City's new First Sanctuary.

The City of Mentalphysics is located on Twenty-nine Palm a Highway between Yucca Valley and Joshua Tree.

Dr. Dingle, founder of the world wide order of "spiritual science," spent a quarter-century in China, India, Tibet and Mongolia and was the official geographer of China for several years. He traveled extensively through Asia and a researcher into Oriental religion and philosophy.

'Adam and Fallen Man' Slated as Sermon Topic

"As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous." This verse from Romans (5:19) will be the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon on "Adam and Fallen Man" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

Man's rightful heritage as the son of God is hidden by the mist of mortal beliefs, as set forth in the allegory in Genesis, which reached its climax when the Lord God called Adam, and Adam answered, "I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself" (3:10).

Mary Baker Eddy states in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Above error's awful din, blackness, and chaos, the voice of Truth still calls: 'Adam, where art thou? Conscience, where art thou? Art thou dwelling in the belief that mind is in matter, and that evil is mind, or art thou in the living faith that there is and can be but one God, and keeping His commandment?'" (p. 307).

'Family of God' To Be Mother's Day Sermon

"The Family of God" will be the subject for discussion by Dr. Barclay Johnson, Administrator of Education, Church of Religious Science, for the Palm Springs Church meeting at the Village Theatre at 11 a.m. Sunday.

This lecture is a special Mother's Day message which will relate the importance of the ideal of Motherhood to the preservation and maintenance of the American way of life as exemplified in the family.

Special announcements will be made this Sunday concerning the annual Religious Science Conference to be held at Asilomar in the Monterey Bay area from Aug. 9 to 16 and reservations for this conference will be taken at the book desk following the service.

All are welcome to the Sunday services of the Religious Science Church, which are preceded by 15 minutes of organ music by Con Maffie.

'Mary Mother's Heart' to Be Sermon Topic

"Mary—A Mother's Heart" will be the sermon topic by the Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor of the Cathedral City Community Church, for the Sunday, Mother's Day, worship.

The choir will sing "Thy Guiding Hand"—Moravian, by Reissiger at the worship service.

Sunday church school for kindergarten through adult classes will be held at 9:30 a.m. and child care will be provided for morning services.

The Senior High Westminister Fellowship will be held at 7 p.m.

IN HONOLULU on a buying trip for their string of seven Hawaiian shops, Gretchen and Waltah Clarke went bearing gifts for entertainers who were flown over to the mainland for the Dinah Shore Hawaiian spectacular recently. Costumes for the show came from the Clarke shops. Here they present a dress to Bina Massman and a flowered shirt to Philip Kaalawai. The Clarks, who travel by air, are already back in Palm Springs, and busy with arrangements for still another shop in Las Vegas next month.

NEW MEMBERS of the board of directors of Welfare and Friendly Aid held their first meeting of the new year at the Health Center in the Civic Center. Pictured above, seated, left to right, Mrs. J. J. Follansbee, secretary; Mrs. B. H. Poliak, president; Mrs. Alex Jablow, treasurer; and Mrs. George Ripley, corresponding secretary. Standing are, Mrs. D. H. Fry, Mrs. Charles Henderson, Mrs. Earl Hough, Mrs. William Foster, and Mrs. Len Owens. The new board reports that they are badly in need of funds in order to operate during the coming year, and without private subscription directly to the organization, much of their work with the underprivileged will have to be given up. Mrs. Poliak reported that she has received calls from some people who said that they had heard that the organization has "plenty of money," and said that this "absolutely was not true." Tonight is a special date . . . out in the date country between here and Indio . . . where Eldorado Country Club is celebrating its second anniversary . . . Around 100 members and guests are expected for the poolside dinner dance . . . with food by Jack Boyer and Pat Barbara . . . The end of the first week in May . . . brings a Saturday night with varied activities . . . Out at Deep Well the Optimist Club is holding luau . . . Ginny Simms is opening a nine-day engagement at Chi Chi . . . and this is the weekend for the Maloufs' "Day and Night" Party . . . when they are entertaining at a continuous party for their Los Angeles friends . . .

Like most parties of this kind . . . it has grown and grown . . . and I don't think Vicki has a clear idea of how many to expect or when . . . but this will be a big one . . . and the last of their Palm Springs parties before they leave for the summer . . .

Tomorrow marks the closing parties at both the Tennis Club and the Racquet Club . . . with the Tennis Club putting the accent on Mothers Day for its garden party . . . and the Racquet Club going all out for one of its zaniest costume parties . . . themed to "Craziest Dreams" . . .

Frankie and Oliver Jaynes were delayed in getting away from Ft. Lauderdale for their motor trip that will bring them to Palm Springs . . . for a visit with their many friends . . . Latest word is that they expect to arrive here a week from tomorrow . . . and will be here for a week . . .

Charlie Farrell, Jack Fugit, Alan Tomblin and Hollywood's Bob George left yesterday to fly to La Paz, Mexico . . . where they'll join Frank Mueller's yacht Mojo . . . for a week . . . They will be fishing for marlin and shooting the white-winged dove that are so plentiful there . . .

Charlie's been away for three weeks . . . and just returned a few days ago from Jamaica . . .

Grace (Mrs. Tony) Cosentino is in the Desert Hospital . . . convalescing after surgery . . . and will be hospitalized for about a week . . . Ethel (Mrs. Joe) Pine is also at Desert Hospital . . . recuperating from surgery . . .

Harold Murphy is off to Tahoe for the summer . . . Florence is staying over for the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital of which she has been president this week . . . There will be election of officers

Toastmistress Club Hears Discussion of 'Communications'

"Communications" was the theme for Toastmistress Club when it met Tuesday evening at the Sonora Road home of its president Gertrude Anderson.

As Toastmistress for the evening, Beverly Midstokke presented Mrs. Anderson as the speaker. In her talk on "Communication," "The Key," Mrs. Anderson brought out that inadequate communication between individuals and between nations results in misunderstanding and maladjustment. Beverly Mitchell, wife of the Western Union manager here, Earle Mitchell, spoke on "Wireless Communications," showing the progress of recent years. Trophy went to Mrs. Anderson.

Theora Wight, as Topicmistress, introduced Suzanne Hubbard, Nancy Tuttle, Mary McGraw, Dixie Janis, Beverly Midstokke, Estelle and reports of the year's work. Next week she will go to Encino to spend a week with her daughter-in-law Emmajean Hume . . . who is still in a cast and recovering from that near-fatal automobile accident . . . Florence will then join Harold at Tahoe . . .

The world's first medical operation in which ether was used as an anesthetic was performed in Jefferson, Ga., by Dr. Crawford W. Long in 1842.

Orchids Theme of Luncheon

"Orchids to You" themed the installation luncheon, which St. Theresa Mothers Club held at the Racquet Club Wednesday, with retiring officers receiving verbal orchids and with an orchid corsage for each incoming officer. Orchids decorated the luncheon tables, too.

Presiding officer, Mrs. Pat Cohen installed the new 1959-1960 officers headed by Mrs. Joseph Marinko as president. Others installed were: Mrs. Eugene Bergeron, 1st vice president; Mrs. Robert Rech, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Cecil Jones, recording secretary; Mrs. Jake Clemens, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Warren Slaughter, treasurer.

Father Michael O'Donohoe gave the invocation and there was a musical background for the luncheon, which was enjoyed by the many Club members and their guests.

Palm Desert Woman's Club to Wind up Activities for Year

Palm Desert Woman's Club will bring its 1958-59 activities to a close on Thursday, with luncheon at the Shadow Mountain Club at 12:30 followed by the installation of officers.

The Club, with 213 members, has as its objectives "Intellectual and civic improvement, social enjoyment, community friendship and helpfulness." Mrs. Edward Ruge, treasurer, reports that the club's fund-raising activities this season resulted in the sum of $2,700 being contributed to various local "good causes."

Contributions were made to the Palm Desert Fire Department to ward the purchase of a resuscitator, to the Children's Christmas Party, to Twin Pines Boys Ranch, Red Cross, Girl Scouts, Chamber of Commerce and to home aid for sick and needy persons.

Gifts for which specific fund-raising affairs were held include a contribution toward Desert Sky Council of Girl Scouts summer camp at Idyllwild, this being raised by luncheons and card parties at the homes of members; the adoption of a Korean child under the Foster Parents Plan, for which the club held a "Roaring Twenties Night" at the Shadow Mountain Club; the sum of $1,000 toward the Palm Desert Library Building Fund; the sum of $900 toward Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital raised by the showing of homes in El Dorado Palms Estates during Vanity Fair Week and a scholarship to the Coachella Valley Teachers' Association to be awarded to some Coachella Valley college aspirant.

Additionally, in a joint effort to aid the roadside clean-up work and to beautify Palm Desert, the club sold a great many litter-bags made by the League for the Handicapped, the proceeds being used for decorative and shade trees for the Palm Desert School.

Mrs. Lela Thompson was this year's ways and means committee chairman, Mrs. Edna Henderson, president.

City of Hope Installation on Tuesday

Fae Brezin will be installed for her second term as president of the Palm Springs Chapter of City of Hope, at the installation meeting which will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alamo.

Other officers to be installed are: Pearl Hess, chairman of the board; Bess Matloff, ways and means chairman; Dorothy Slatin, membership chairman; Sue Grossman, program chairman; Gene Burien, publicity; Dorothy Rosen, recording secretary; Raye Gholston, financial secretary; Fay Brown, treasurer; Joseph Brown, parliamentarian; Rose Walders, advisor; Mae Heller, special projects; Bessie Kozlen, corresponding secretary; Pauline Stone, tribute chairman; Jean Lehrfeld, historian; Shirley Bock, secretary of the board; Irene Litoff, Sunshine chairman; Rose Levinson, Yolanda Gillman, hospitality; Marian Schwartz, decorating chairman; Rena Hurwitz, chaplain; Dr. George Gillman, "500 Club" chairman; Harry Stone, Edith Bogart, Sophie Goodman, bank committee; Blanche Katz, telephone chairman; Dorothy Jaffe, Rose Sherman, Charlotte Fahn, Kate Neishuler, hostesses; Betty Niemetz, Harry Stone, Abe Schwartz, Dr. George Gillman, Betty Jacobs, trustees.

A musical variety show is being arranged by program director Dr. Marian Zornis. There will be piano selections by Mrs. Pearl Hess, who will also play accompaniment for the chorus, which consists of Elsie Broot, Rosalind Bronstein, Helen Chapman, Patricia Chapman, Florence Cohen, Sue Grossman and Marjorie Wasserman.

All members and friends are urged to attend this last meeting, and the president Fae Brezin promises an enjoyable and entertaining evening.

'Porgy and Bess' Premiere in July

Premiere of "Porgy and Bess," under the auspices of the Women's Guild as a benefit for Cedars of Lebanon Hospital's free bed care, promises to make motion picture and benefit event history, according to plans announced at a cocktail party in the Bel Air home of Mrs. Alfred Hart, president of the Women's Guild.

Mrs. Tom May, the Guild's first vice president, and Mrs. Samuel Briskin, board member, were named by Mrs. Hart as honorary chairmen for the event to be held Wednesday evening, July 15, in the Carthage Theatre.

Premiere chairmen will be Mmes. Kirk Douglas and Johnny Green, while chairman of the supper dance to follow at the Beverly Hilton Hotel will be Mrs. Frederick Weisman. Her co-chairmen will be Mmes. Herbert Lantini and John Clayburgh. All are members of the Guild's board.

Samuel Goldwyn, producer of "Porgy and Bess," was an honored guest at the planning party and expressed his pleasure in selecting the Women's Guild as sponsoring organization for the premiere and at the funds being used in support of the Cedars Clinic free bed program. Hart Isaacs, Cedars president, thanked Mr. Goldwyn for his interest in the hospital and commended the Women's Guild for their efforts, both in financial support of Cedars and as hospital volunteers.

It was just a few years ago that the Goldwyn production of "Guys and Dolls" yielded almost $100,000 as a Cedars free bed benefit premiere. Mrs. Hart, who was chairman for that affair, revealed that proceeds from the "Porgy and Bess" premiere will come close to the total. Tickets were announced at $100 each for orchestra seats, $50 each for mezzanine boxes and $25 each for balcony seats. The supper dance will be an additional $25 per couple.

Stars of Samuel Goldwyn's motion picture production of the George Gershwin-DuBose Heyward popular opera are Sidney Poitier as Porgy, Dorothy Dandridge as Bess, Sammy Davis, Jr., as Sportin' Life, and Pearl Bailey as Maria. The film, which was directed by Otto Preminger, is being distributed by Columbia Pictures.

SPENDTHRIFT

$300,000 For Just One Steed

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UP) — There is a horse breeding establishment in the heart of the Kentucky bluegrass, just off the Iron Works Pike, which has a romantic tale connected with the fact that it is known as Spendthrift Farm.

Back in the horse and buggy era when it was being founded, the mistress of the farm supposedly went to town and came home with a very costly hat.

This prompted her spouse to call her a "spendthrift" and, one tale has it, this then was adopted as the farm's name.

At first glance it would seem this legendary trail still is in the family because the founders' great grandson sails for England today to bring back a $300,000 race horse.

But you can stop worrying about the open-handed qualities of Spendthrift's owner, Leslie Combs. Because when he hands them a check in England for the steed named Tudor Minstrel he is assured of receiving more than that in stud fees during the next two years and Tudor Minstrel's offspring when sold will make the original investment look like the stake in a penny ante poker game.

Touching all bases, Combs also will take a look at the Italian champion, Ribot, which he will import next year for a three-year stand at stud in Kentucky. All of which makes this journey stand out as the most promising voyage since Sir Francis Drake sailed for the West Indies and a shot at Spanish plate.

Combs, who engineered Spendthrift Farm, from a 120-acre farm to a modern, gleaming white gleaming nursery of 350 acres, which is one of Kentucky's showplaces, has a touch for this kind of venture. It was he who originated the syndicate idea, in which a dozen or more interests pony up a share to obtain the services of a great sire.

His first big coup was several years back when his syndicate bought up the great Nashua for $1,261,000 in horse history's most famous deal. The shareholders all wound up with a great sire and Combs was right there with the rest of them.

This partially explains why he has been the leading seller for 10 straight years at the Keeneland summer yearling sales. His colts and fillies have brought him in more than two million dollars and one year they brought an average of $40,000 each.

Combs made the Tudor Minstrel deal last December, but, as someone once said, you've got to be lucky, too. So what happened? Well, last Saturday Tommy Lee won the Kentucky Derby—and Tudor Minstrel's Tommy Lee's pappy. So, naturally, Tudor Minstrel becomes more in demand than ever.

"There's no doubt," smiled the man with the Midas touch, "that we have made a fine deal."

His great, great grandpappy would have been proud of him.

Tennis Clinics To End Today

Final session of the Tennis Clinics for youths 9 to 14 of the Palm Springs area was held this morning at the High School tennis courts under guidance of Dave Gilliam, Racquet Club tennis pro.

Tournaments for boys and girls and the award of prizes for the second year's lessons, marked the day.

Stitch Awarded Honors at Hero, Upsets Ortega

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UP) — Rudolph Stich, upset winner over fifth-ranking welterweight Gaspar Ortega, and a hero as well, said today his easy victory in the return match was all a matter of proper pacing.

"The first time I fought Ortega I didn't pace myself. But last night I kept things nice and even and didn't have any trouble at all," said the Louisville, Ky., church elder, said.

Stich, in addition to scoring his impressive win in the televised bout, was honored Friday night by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission for rescuing a drowning man in the Ohio river.

"I SURE DIDN'T want to go back to Louisville a loser after hearing about that," he said. Ortega, a full-blooded Mexican Indian and a 6-5 favorite, said, "I just never got going."

Stich started off early to avenge the narrow loss he suffered at Ortega's hands and opened a cut over the Indian's left eye in the first round. Using a solid right jab, the stylish Stich pounded away at the eye.

IN THE THIRD ROUND Stich sent Ortega reeling into the ropes with a solid right to the head and then worked savagely on Ortega's body and head.

The fight, which ended with the 1400 fans cheering the last minute for Stich's able performance, nearly came to an earlier end when Stich re-opened Ortega's cut. It was bleeding badly enough to have referee Joe Palmer ask a state athletic commission doctor look it over after the eighth round.

Sets Second Record

MONTE CARLO, Monaco. (UP) — Jack Brabham of Australia set a new record in Friday's trials for Sunday's Grand Prix of Monaco when he was clocked in 1:40.01 for one lap—an average speed of about 70 miles an hour.

Casper Wins Third All Star Golf Match

Billy Casper of Chula Vista, made it three in a row in the 1959 All Star Golf series when he defeated challenger Al Balding yesterday at Bermuda Dunes Country Club, 66 to 70.

Casper's 66 set a new record for the Bermuda Dunes course, just opened this year.

THE TOURING GOLF pros, shooting for cash and glory for ABC television, now move on to Las Vegas where, on Monday Casper will meet Walter Burkemo in the first challenge match there.

Sam Snead, who won 13 straight matches in the All Star Golf series to close up the 1958 matches, was defending champion when this year's series started here at Eldorado Country Club Tuesday.

HE WAS UPSET by Gary Player, South African pro, 69 to 72.

Wednesday at Bermuda Dunes, Casper, who had won six straight last year before Snead stepped in, defeated Player 72-76.

Thursday Casper defeated Ed Oliver at Eldorado 71-72 and yesterday won from Balding.

While Casper went 72 strokes at Bermuda Dunes Wednesday, he cut six strokes from that score yesterday in setting the new course record.

Fleet Nasrullah, Silky Sullivan Share in Honors

INGLEWOOD. (UP) — With Tony Lee sitting it out, most of the top 3-year-olds in the west get together at Hollywood Park today in the $25,000 Debonair Stakes to determine their chances against the Kentucky Derby winner later in the meeting.

The six furlong race for sophomores features the first Saturday of the 55-day meeting which got underway Friday with Fleet Nasrullah and Silky Sullivan sharing opening day honors. Fleet Nasrullah captured the $12,750 Premier Handicap while Silky made another of his many comebacks in winning the Roy Campanella purse.

The Debonair field included Ole Foles, winner over Tony Lee last winter at Santa Anita in the San Vicente Stakes, and Linwood, surprise first in the California Breeders' Championship over Finnegun.

Scoremasters to Meet Villagers

Palm Springs baseball nine, sponsored by the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan association, will host the Scoremaster of Los Angeles tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at the Polo Grounds.

The Braves are members of the Los Angeles Winter League and currently in second place in that circuit.

Admission is free.

Reach Player Limit

ST. LOUIS. (UP) — The St. Louis Cardinals reached the 25-player roster maximum today when they dropped outfielder Joe Durham. A club official said Durham will be assigned to Vancouver.

Steelers Sign Back

PITTSBURGH. (UP) — Halfback Clive Bullian of San Jose State College has been signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League. Bullian was a free agent.

Long, Sprinters Headline Fresno Relay Carnival

DALLAS LONG, young USC freshman who heaved the 16-pound shot 63 feet, 7 inches to beat Parry O'Brien's official world record, will probably have the mark recognized as a new world record by the International Athletic Federation. A controversy over technicalities for a time threatened the acceptance of the mark. (International)

FRESNO, Calif. (UP) — Shotputter Dallas Long, the man-mountain boy wonder from Southern California; Olympic sprint champion Bobby Morrow and world record co-holder Ray Norton of San Jose State headline the cast in the 33rd annual West Coast Relays today.

Long, the 200-pound 19-year-old from Arizona, is expected to smash all records in his specialty as he goes after the mark that has been held by Parry O'Brien for years. Long has a measured heave of 63 feet, 7 inches, five inches better than the recognized world mark.

His competition here will come from Bill Nieder, ex-Kansas now with the Army; and Dave Davis of USC. Both men are capable of going over the 60-foot mark. O'Brien will be unable to compete due to business commitments.

But the big excitement is expected to be in the 100-yard dash when Morrow and Norton hook up. Both officially have been clocked in 9:3 and Norton is noted as always being tough this early in the year. Morrow was not quite ready for a top effort yet, but it should be close.

The all-star field has a record 1,673 entries, including grade school, high school, junior college, university and club athletes.

Hemet Edges Indians 5-4 To Tighten RC Flag Race

4 Teams Remain in Scramble

Palm Springs	W	L	Pct	GB
Hemet	8	3	.727	1/2
San Jacinto	8	4	.667	1
Coachella	8	4	.667	1
Beaumont	6	4	.600	2
Elmore	4	8	.333	3
Perris	3	8	.272	3 1/2
Banning	0	12	.000	9

Friday's Results
Hemet, 5; Palm Springs, 4.
Coachella, 3; Elmore, 0.
San Jacinto, 6; Banning, 4.

Hemet High edged Palm Springs Indians 5 to 4 at the Polo Grounds yesterday to throw the Riverside County League race into a snarl with four teams still in contention and two games to go.

The Bulldogs' victory left Palm Springs only a half game in front of Hemet and victories by San Jacinto and Coachella yesterday left them only a game off the pace.

THE INDIANS started out with a four-run burst in the bottom of the first. Marty Berk, lead off man, and Stan Christa singled to open the game and Lenny Ruiz sacrificed them along. Jim Richardson of Hemet walked Lewis to load the bases and Larry Segundo doubled two home. Lewis scored on Norm Ruiz' single. Segundo made it four-nothing when he came in on a fielder's choice.

But that was all. Richardson held the Tribe to two hits in the remaining six innings.

HEMET GOT THREE of the runs back in the top of the second and knotted it at 4-4 in the third.

Neither team was able to score until the top of the seventh when Hemet scored on a Tribe error, a single and a long sacrifice fly.

San Jacinto defeated Banning 6-4, and Coachella won over Elmore 3-0 to put the top four teams only a game apart.

Tuesday the Tribe entertains Perris here and closes the season against Beaumont there next Friday.

Hemet	001 000 1-3	6 2
Palm Springs	400 000 0-4	6 2
Richardson and Hess: Segundo and Lewis.

Mrs. McDermott Wins Blind Nine O'Donnell Event

Mrs. Don McDermott was the winner in a "Blind Nine" tournament at O'Donnell Golf Club this week with a low net of 28 in Class A competition. Mrs. Dan Wells was second with 32 and Mrs. Arthur Bailey, Mrs. F. Lauppe and Mrs. E. Hunt tied for third.

In the Blind Nine tournament, the players went the full 18-hole route but only nine holes, which they did not know before the finish, were counted.

In Class B, Mrs. George Robertson and Mrs. Charles Baldwin tied for first with 32's. Mrs. Fred Nicholson was third with 33 and Mrs. Ernest Alschuler fourth with 34.

Others taking part in the tourney were Mrs. Walter Funsinn, Mrs. Larry Sitter, Mrs. A. Portnoy, Mrs. A. Rolapp, Mrs. William Reichel, Mrs. Lois Clark, Mrs. E. Cordrey, and Mrs. R. Bramble.

Veeck Elected Sox President

CHICAGO. (UP) — It's President Bill Veeck of the Chicago White Sox from now on.

Baseball's top showman gained an official status with the White Sox when the board of directors Friday named him president, filling the post for the first time since the death of Mrs. Grace Gismisley in 1956.

Veeck became majority stockholder of the club after he purchased 54 per cent of the stock from Mrs. Dorothy D. Rigney in March.

Jacobs Holds Lead by Four In Oklahoma

Is 11 Under Par
For 36 Holes in
$25,000 Tourney

OKLAHOMA CITY. (UP) — If anyone had a chance today to overtake young Tommy Jacobs in the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open golf tournament, it would be a player with an affinity for mud.

A deluge which threatened all day Friday crashed down shortly after the second round was finished, and piled more vexation on professionals already harassed by Twin Hills Country Club's elusive par.

BUT JACOBS, the Whittier, Cal., sensation, found the slightly soggy course to his liking again Friday and added a five-under-par 67 to a 66 he had blazed Thursday for an 11-under-par 36-hole total of 133.

The amiable 34-year-old drew the tourney's largest gallery and treated it to a splendid exhibition of shotmaking as he banged in eight birdies.

However, an ominous tribe lurked at the end of the 36 holes, a short distance behind Jacobs, with former Masters champion Arnold Palmer registering the strongest threat.

Palmer fired a 64 Friday, the best round of the tournament through two rounds. He coupled it with a 73 from the first round to get a two-round total of 137.

PALMER'S 137 through two rounds put him in a tie for second with Bob Gault, Crystal River, Fla., who turned the tree-studded course in 68 Friday.

Don Fairfield, Cassey, Ill., and Oklahoma amateur champion Glen Fowler, Oklahoma City, had 138s through 36 holes. Pete Cooper, Lakeland, Fla., was in with 139 and Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif., loomed at 140 in the first two rounds.

Seven strokes behind the leader at 141 were Ted Kroll, Sarasota, Fla., Doug. Ford, Paradise, Fla., Freddie Haas, New Orleans, Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y., and Bob Rosburg, Palo Alto, Calif.

Little League Teams Start Action May 15

Junior Police and Hathaway Little League nines will launch the 1959 season Friday, May 15, at the Polo Grounds in the first game of a double-header. A. G. today in releasing the schedule (Woody) Woods, LL president said for the summer games, Rotary Club and Palm Springs Water Company teams will play the second half of the double-header. Lincoln-Mercury draws a bye on opening night.

Each of the five teams in the loop will meet the other three times during the season which ends the round robin schedule on June 29.

PLAY-OFFS will start July 3. The four top teams, when the regulation three-round schedule comes to an end, will be in the play-offs.

Games are scheduled Friday evenings and Saturday mornings in the first round and Mondays and Fridays in the second and third rounds.

Evening games will start at 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. An 8:15 curfew has been established on the

Favor Vertex in Grey Lad 'Cap

NEW YORK. (UP) — Vertex, a hard-luck chestnut gelding apparently racing to expectations this year, tops a field of 11 handicap stars today in the $75,000 Grey Lag Handicap at Jamaica.

Illinois Board to Recognize Ray As Title Holder

CHICAGO. (UP) — The Illinois Athletic Commission today awaited an answer to its proposal that it would recognize a middleweight championship bout between titleholder Sugar Ray Robinson and Carmen Basilio.

Robinson, who was stripped of his title by the National Boxing Association earlier this week, found an unexpected friend Friday in Frank Gilmer, chairman of the Illinois commission.

Gilmer said his IAC would gladly bill the bout as a middleweight title match provided Robinson signed before May 26.

Gilmer said it was his "guess" that "everybody else would also recognize it as a championship fight," despite the NBA action which came after Robinson ignored its April 25 deadline to defend his crown.

Lacy Rites Held In Sacramento

Funeral service for O. J. Lacy, Sacramento social and civic leader for a quarter of a century and a winter visitor here for the same span, was held Friday in the capitol city, it was learned here today.

Lacy, retired president of the California - Western States Life Insurance Company, had been a homeowner here for the past nine years.

THE WISCONSIN - born insurance man was active in community and social activities in both Sacramento and in the Village. He was president of the Sacramento Boy Scout Council, was a director of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the Sacramento - Yolo Port Administration Committee, American Legion, Elks, Rotary and other activities.

In Palm Springs, Lacy belonged to the Shadow Mountain Club, the Thunderbird Country Club, the Tennis Club and the Desert Riders. He lived at 1830 Mesa Drive.

PRECEDED IN DEATH by his wife, Helen, who died in 1956, Lacy is survived by two daughters, Bettie and Doris, both of Sacramento; three sons, Thurlow and Raymond of Sacramento and Robert J. of Salt Lake City; a brother, Emory B. Lacy, of San Bernardino, and by 12 grandchildren.

Funeral was held in East Lawn Cemetery Friday with entombment following at the same location.

Los Angeles Keeps Rating As Smog Capital

The Riverside County Air Pollution Control District, which still insists on measuring smog concentrations in Riverside County against the foul atmospheric readings of Los Angeles County, has announced that area smog isn't as bad as the Los Angeles air.

The APCD released these ratings: Oxidant concentrations — San Geronimo Pass, 0.48 parts per million; Riverside, 0.24; Corona, 0.25; Mira Loma, 0.22.

Oxides of nitrogen—Mira Loma, 0.13 ppbm, (Los Angeles County average 0.30 ppm)

Carbon monoxide—Mira Loma, 10.00 ppm (Los Angeles County has a 15.0 ppm rating).

Readings for Riverside on the oxides of nitrogen meter were not divulged by the APCD.

PlayerStage Play Challenge To Theater-Beck

"The Respectful Prostitute," the Jean-Paul Sartre play that has occasioned widespread criticism and controversy and which opened Friday night in a PlayerStage presentation at El Paseo Theater here, represents a "challenge" for theaters, according to Martin Beck.

Beck, who is producer-director of the PlayerStage company, said that the local presentation of the story of a decadent Southern senator whose moral concepts pull down those of his associates is "simply the acceptance of the responsibility of theater."

"MOST DRAMA groups recognize this responsibility," Beck said. "When significant plays come along, you don't turn them down because you think it might not go good at the box office."

This determination — to present "Respectful Prostitute" here — hasn't hurt the box office for the PlayerStage presentation. Beck reported that the house was "nearly sold out" for last night's performance and has "healthy" sales for the balance of the 10-day run.

THE SARTRE STORY concerns a Southern senator's reaction to the news that his son is engaged in unwholesome activities. The play itself won a New York critic's award, has been characterized as the "first play about the south that has no 'pre-designed' job to do."

Bill Hesson plays the senator, Verkina Beck portrays Lizzie, and Martin Beck plays the senator's son in the action-packed story of a problem that is as fresh as the headlines in today's paper.

DESERT HOT SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Williams of Los Angeles—parents of screen star Esther Williams—were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron B. Eaton. Mrs. Williams, a well-known psychologist, owns and operates the Southwest Counseling Association in Los Angeles which Mrs. Eaton was associated with for several years.

Herbert A. Ecclestone, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Johnson, J. Marie Hopp and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith were among the localities who attended the dinner given at the Palm Springs Tennis Club on Tuesday by the alumni of the University of Redlands, in honor of their alma mater's 50th anniversary.

Following a four-day visit at the home of Mrs. Kay Koning, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Christiansen returned last week to their home in Westwood.

Poetess Grace Parsons Harmon, member of the Palm Springs Branch of the National League of American Pen Women, has been awarded second prize in the poetry division of the League's annual contest for the best unpublished material produced by its members.

Mrs. Harmon's entry—"Why the Donkey Wears a Cross on His Back"—won in competition with entries submitted from 20 other branches throughout Southern California. Awards were presented Sunday at the president's luncheon held at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Beverly Hills.

J. Parks Blodgett of Dulzura was a weekend guest at the home of the C. C. Coveys.

Overnight guests at the Ferd Pedersen home were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schrade of River Forrest, Ill. The Schrades—he's a manufacturer of ball bearings in Chicago, and a former business associate of Pedersen—are topping off a three-month tour of California with a few days in Las Vegas before motoring home.

Mrs. Mae Miskell, and her sister, Mrs. Leola Bryant, are occupying their Los Angeles residence prior to embarking on a six-week tour of seven European countries. Before returning to their desert home in October they will also visit relatives in Wisconsin.

Weekend guests at the home of the Hans Kleinjungs were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Stewart of Panorama City, who have just returned from a three-week vacation in Hawaii. Within the next month the Stewarts will leave on an extended trailer trip which will take them to the East Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Elmer, of New York City—where he's a member of the New York Stock Exchange—are ending a six-month stay at the Highlander Lodge. The couple have been returning to the desert for the past eight years during which time Mrs. Elmer, who lost her ability to walk following injuries sustained in an automobile accident, regained this function.

Mrs. C. Markell and Mrs. Maria Donahay have just returned from an enjoyable motor trip to northern California. While Mrs. Markell visited her daughter and son-in-law, the Thomas T. Casparys, and grandchildren Cynthia and Sue Ann, in Fair Oaks, Mrs. Donahay was the houseguest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Schlager, and her brother, Jack Hatcher, in nearby Carmichael.

Joan Forcivly entertained at tea on Sunday. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Margaret Moak, Linda Crosby and Sally and Irene Sweet of Palm Springs; Liza Tooker of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Winifred Cooper of Long Beach. Also present were Mrs. Grace Harmon and Mrs. H. M. Saunders.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green of San Diego, who have vacationed in Desert Hot Springs for the past seven years, have just arrived at the El Reposo for a three-week stay. Green has promoted some of San Diego's largest industrial ventures and his wife is the daughter of a prominent pioneer family whose vast land holdings included much of the site on which the City of Fresno now stands.
